Ancestral Worship for All Seasons

On the spiritual path of an ADF Druid, ancestral worship is a common part of daily worship rites and devotional activities. These activities aren't limited to Pagans on the Druid path. It's easily possible to incorporate honoring your ancestors into daily and regular seasonal celebrations. General customs of honoring ancestors for most cultural traditions will be covered in detail. We'll discuss possibilities from who to honor, how to honor, and why.

10:30 AM - 12:00 AM- Mulberry Bower - Workshop presenter Kyrja

Story time

Kids of all ages are invited to bring their parents to hear how Rupert the Rabbit meets the Lord and Lady, and many other new friends while he learns about the seasonal holidays of the Wheel of the Year in this story-time workshop. Many surprises are in store for everyone who joins us. Please bring a chair or blanket.

Magickal Invocations and Conjurations

The most common methods of magickal invocation and conjuration used today are very different from what we find in classical and ancient occult traditions. This workshop will focus upon the older techniques by which Gods and Angels are invoked and spirits are conjured - such as found in the Key of Solomon the King, the Book of Abramelin and even Dr. John Dee's journals of angelic skryings. You will learn how to write and perform your own customized invocations (with ritual offerings), including how to create new prose in the very powerful "Enochian" magickal language.
